

Comparison of Adjectives for 2ESO

Choose the correct option.

Adjective	Comparative Form
big afraid
bad	worse than noisy good calm

Choose the correct option

1. Lucy never gets angry, but her sister often shouts at people. Lucy is calmer / more calm than her sister.
2. Natalia is angry when I win a race, but I don't mind when she wins. I am more / less jealous than Natalia.
3. My mum likes spiders, but my dad hates them. My dad is more / less afraid of spiders than my mum.
4. There isn't a lot of noise in the country, but it's always noisy in the city. The country is quieter / noisier than the city.
5. Hugo never wants to help people, but Mayra always tries to help. Mayra is less / more selfish than Hugo.

Match the gaps to the correct answer

Cats versus Dogs

Cats are 1 (popular) dogs in the USA, the UK and Australia. Why is that? Well, according to some people, dogs are 2 (friendly) cats and also 3 (loyal) cats. But having a pet cat is 4 (easy) having a pet dog. Cats are usually 5 (quiet) dogs. They are also 6 (independent) dogs. Dogs are very dependent on humans.

1. More independent than
2. More popular than
3. Friendlier than
4. More loyal than
5. Quieter than
6. Easier than

Select the correct option

1. Ana helps me in maths and Lily helps me in science. They are both wonderful friends. Ana is (helpful) Lily.
2. Paul won €10. Danny found €50. Paul is (lucky) Danny.
3. Kristen often makes plans, but then cancels. Steven never cancels. Kristen is (reliable) Steven.
4. Last night, my mum and dad were both very angry because I came home late. My dad was (angry) my mum.