

ABSTRACT NOUNS

a) In the following sentences, identify the abstract nouns and write them down.

- She showed great bravery during the incident.
- I am full of hope for the future.
- Her kindness towards everyone is admirable.
- He values honesty in all aspects of life.
- She had the courage to stand up to the bully.

b) Read the description and choose the correct term

- The state of being free and not controlled by others. (a) Trust (b) Freedom
- A good relationship between people. (a) Fear (b) Friendship
- The act of saying you will do something. (a) Promise (b) Idea
- The feeling of being happy about something. (a) Poverty (b) Delight
- A belief in your ability to do things. (a) Madness (b) Confidence
- A good quality of being truthful. (a) Honesty (b) Lies
- A feeling of surprise at something unexpected. (a) Rage (b) Shock
- The feeling of not knowing something and wanting to find out. (a) Curiosity (b) Anger
- The feeling of being very angry. (a) Rage (b) Enthusiasm
- The period when you were a child. (a) Childhood (b) Memories

c) Select the correct word to complete the sentence.

sadness - success - bravery - love - trust

jealousy - promise - anger - freedom - friendship

- Her _____ made her feel sad when she saw her friend's new car.
- He worked hard and finally found _____ in his career.
- He was red with _____ after the argument.
- Our _____ is very special to me.
- The soldier showed great _____ in the battle.
- They fought for their _____ to travel anywhere they wanted.
- I have _____ in you. I know you can do it!
- She made a _____ to always help her sister.
- There was _____ in his eyes when he heard the bad news.
- _____ is the most important thing in a family.

