

How is your car?

- Bob: Hey, Al. Where's your car?
- Albert: I took it to the _____.
- Bob: Oh, did you have an accident?
- Albert: No, I left it with the _____ for a tune-up.
- Bob: When will it be ready?
- Albert: The mechanic said it will be ready on Monday.
- Bob: That's such a long time.
- Albert: Yeah, it is a long time.
- Bob: Are you _____ and going on a trip?
- Albert: No. I just take it to the mechanics every 3,000 kms or so.
- Bob: Why do you do that?
- Albert: It's very old. It needs _____.
- Bob: How old is your car?
- Albert: It's a 1975 _____.
- Bob: That's not so old. My grandmother was born in 1912.
- Albert: Well, I guess, compared to your grandmother, my car isn't that old.
- Bob: Hey, wait a minute. _____ - are we going to get to the movie?
- Albert: Well, we can walk or _____. Up to you.
- Bob: Are you crazy? Walk? The shopping mall is much too far.
- Albert: Well, _____, we'll go by train.