

Agreement: nouns connected by conjunctions

1. The boy as well as the girls has/have learned to programme in Python.
2. My colleague and friend is/are coming to visit me.
3. Neither the girls nor John is/are to blame.
4. There are one or two subjects which is/are of interest to me.
5. "Pretty Little Liars" is/are representative for the American teen drama mystery thriller television series.
6. Brussels is/are worth visiting.
7. The Netherlands is/are worth visiting.
8. Forty years seems/seem a long time.
9. Action, and not words is/are needed.