

Complete the sentences, use the words in the Table Below.

Spell savanna, valley, irrigate, drought, fertilise, nomad, cash crop, elevation, subsistence, diversified

TANZANIA consists of the city centre and THE SAVANNA which is a flat grassland. Teeming with wildlife, it is home to many animals like the Wildebeest, lion, elephant and Zebra and Rhino. Unlike the Nile River in Egypt which is, the savanna is drier and less fertile.

It is very hard for farmers tothe savanna because of its wide flat plains. There is hardly any rain so it is almost impossible to grow.....

During a very long dry season or, rivers dry up and this causes animals to die.

The MAASAI people who live on the savanna areThey often move from one place to another, to be nearer to water. They usually walk and hunt on foot. The women of the MAASAI take care of children and their farm.

The people of the two countries— Kenya and Tanzania practice.....farming because they can only farm what they can eat. There is no leftover produce to sell at the market.

Thankfully the government of TANZANIA has its economy by exporting cash crops like coffee and cashew nuts. In addition the country exports ceramics, beads and gold. Tanzania is doing very well and this economic growth makes it an attractive place to visit.

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE WORDS FROM THE BOX

- 1 At anof over 33000 feet, Mount Everest is the tallest mountain in the world.
- 2 Tanzania.....is doing well because its exports are greater than its imports.
- 3 The Nile river is very, there is a rich layer of soil where farmers grow all kinds of crop.
- 4 At the foot of the mountain there is usually awhere the temperature is warmer and green grass grows.
- 5 Many animals like the lion and animals like the giraffe live in the grassy plains known as the.....
- 6 Ais a very dry season when there is no rain.
- 7 The Bedouins are Arabs who travel with their camels. Similarly, Mongolians arewho live in a yurt and travel by horses from place to place.
- 8 Farmers in Sarawak plant and sell pepper and rubber and palm fruits. They arewhich bring income.

9 The Malaysian economy is because we export semiconductors, oil, gas, palm oil and vehicles