

LAST WEEKEND

On Saturday morning I got up late. I ate breakfast and read a magazine. In the afternoon I saw a good movie at the Plaza. That evening I went to a party. On Sunday morning I went to the club. There I met some friends and we had a good time together. We swam in the pool and played volleyball. After lunch I took a nap and went to church. I came home for dinner around six o'clock and watched television for a while. Later I had a date with my friend and at about eleven o'clock I went to bed. That's how I spent last weekend.
