Can for Requests / Permission

The word "can" is a modal verb that we use to:

Make a polite request	Ask for permission
When we want someone to do something for us. • Can you open the window?	When we want to do something. • Can I ask you a question? • Can I sit here?

When answering polite requests, we usually use special phrases.

To reply 'Yes' you can say:	To reply 'No' we might say :
• Sure / Of course. • No problem	• I'm sorry, (give reason). • No, I'm sorry. I can't.

Put the words in the right order to make correct sentences.

1. cookie? / I / Can / have / a

2. help / Can / me / my / with / you / homework?

3. sit / here? / I / Can

4. tell / time? / me / Can / the / you

5. borrow / Can / I / your / book?

Rewrite the sentences using "can".

Example: Give me a glass of water. Can you give me a glass of water?

1. Open the window.

2. Take a photo of me.

3. Help me with my books.

4. Show me your homework.

5. Borrow your book.

LIVEWORKSHEETS