

GERUND / INFINITIVE

1. Complete the sentences with gerund or infinitive.

1. I will never forget _____ (visit) Malta in 1999.
2. Don't forget _____ (close) the window, will you?
3. Did you remember _____ (post) those letters I gave you?
4. I regret _____ (tell) you but you failed the exam.
5. Please, stop _____ (make) that noise. I am trying to concentrate.
6. Last night Mike tried hard _____ (start) the car but he couldn't.
7. We regret _____ (stay) at that hotel. It was terrible.
8. My new job means _____ (travel) abroad a lot.
9. I prefer _____ (watch) comedies to horrors.
10. My mum makes me _____ (mop) the floor every day.
11. The girl was too short _____ (reach) the shelf.
12. He had difficulty in _____ (complete) the task.
13. He is likely _____ (put) the house for sale.
14. It took me a week to get used to _____ (live) in the suburbs.
15. I used to _____ (share) the room with my brother.
16. We look forward to _____ (travel) abroad.
17. The manager was accused of _____ (steal) the money.
18. We'd rather _____ (spend) the holidays abroad.
19. You'd better _____ (not stay) out too late.

2. Complete with perfect infinitives or perfect gerunds.

1. He denied _____ (be) married.
2. She regretted _____ (not go) to university.
3. I'm glad _____ (work) here for such a long time.
4. She admitted _____ (steal) the money.
5. He seems _____ (won) the lottery.