The New Beginning

James is a baker. He works in a small bakery in the city. Every morning, he wakes up early and bakes fresh bread. He loves his job, but he wants to achieve more. He believes he can open his bakery one day.

James asks his boss about new recipes. His boss allows him to try new things, so James begins to make cakes and cookies. Customers like his new ideas, and his confidence grows.

One day, a big opportunity arises. A customer asks James to bake a big cake for a wedding. James feels nervous, but he accepts the challenge. He answers all the customer's questions and listens carefully.

James starts to prepare. He buys the best ingredients, bends down to take the flour and sugar from the shelf, bids goodbye to his boss, and goes home to practice.

On the wedding day, James arrives early. He believes in his work. The cake appears beautiful. The guests love it. James achieves his goal.

His boss sees his hard work. He says, "James, you become better every day. You beat every challenge."

James smiles. He feels happy. He knows this is the first step to his bakery.
