A Man Who Travelled Around The World

Mr. Thomas dreamed of having an adventure from a young age. He wanted to explore faraway lands, meet new people and learn about different cultures. Once he decided that he was ready to start a big journey around the world. Mr. Thomas took a big backpack and some useful things with him. While traveling, he was going to keep a journal where he would write down his experiences.

As Mr. Thomas travelled, he visited high mountains, green forests, unusual markets with different things, food and clothes. In each new place, he spoke to local people, listened to their stories and shared his own life tales. He learned about ancient customs, danced to the music of different cultures and even remembered a few words in several languages.

After many months of travelling, Mr. Thomas returned home. His friends waited for him. They wanted to know everything about the journey. And Mr. Thomas shared the wonders that he had seen. He spoke of the great pyramids of Egypt, the quiet temples of Japan and the breathtaking wildlife of the Amazon rainforest. Mr. Thomas hoped to keep these memories for a long time.

A. Mr. Thomas wanted to travel because ...

1) he wanted to earn money.
2) he wanted to learn new things.
3) he wanted to publish a travel journey.

B. He took ... with him.
