A) The Open Air Museum

The Open Air Museum is one of the oldest and largest in the world. Spread across 54 acres of land, the museum houses more than 40 farms, houses and mills from the period 1740-1950. The Museum offers presentations on a daily basis nearly all year long.

B) The Museum of Crafts

The mission of the Museum of Crafts is to enhance the appreciation and understanding of England's past by presenting the culture, history and lives of ordinary people through demonstration and exhibition and of the trades and crafts. The museum shop offers an excellent range of fun and educational gift items.

C) Museum of Fine Arts

Organized by the MFA, this splendid exhibition proposes a new approach to understanding 18th-century Dutch painting. The exhibition includes 35 carefully selected, beautifully preserved portraits, landscapes, genre scenes and seascapes borrowed from European private and public collections. The museum is open daily except Sundays.

D) The Museum of Technology

At MOT, the Museum of Technology, people of all ages can see and do amazing things every day. Ride in the only hydrogen car open to the public, witness what's next in 3D Printing the Future. There are child-friendly options available and families are always welcome.

E) Museum of Arts and Design (MAD)

The outstanding exhibition, Dutch Painting in the Age of Rembrandt, will be on view at the Museum of Arts and Design (MAD) until October 26. Anyone should make the effort to see this display of splendid 17th-century art. The exhibition is open seven days a week.

F) National Railway Museum

Based on the site of the biggest passenger railway station in the world, National Railway Museum truly is a museum for everybody. Kids, small and big will be fascinated by the exhibitions, while the huge collection of historic working machinery and vintage vehicles is absolutely fascinating.

G) Middleport Pottery

Travel back in time and discover the history of Dutch pottery including a fabulous collection of "Gouds plateel", the top pieces of which are being exhibited in the room 28. See items from Gouda on display and visit the museum shop and café.

The Kroneberg Porcelain Museum exhibits examples of the well-known porcelain factory's production from 1867-1983. You will find unique artwork from different periods and countless examples of household china. Our cafe is temporarily closed due to a gas leak.

Reading Part 3

- For each question, choose the correct answer.

Everybody likes to feel that she or he is special. Sadly, many of us grow up believing that we're not special at all. We wish that we could be more attractive or better at sports. We wish we had more money or nicer clothes. Like the Tin Man, the Scarecrow, or the Cowardly Lion from The Wizard of Oz, we think we're not good enough just as we are. In the film, The Tin Man wishes he had a heart. The Scarecrow wishes that he had a brain, and the Lion wants courage. Eventually, each of them realizes that he already has what he wants. Nearly all parents want us to be the best we can be. They occasionally attempt to encourage us to do better by comparing us to others. They mean well, but the message we usually get is that we're not good enough. We start to believe that the only way we can be special is by being better than somebody else, but we are frequently disappointed. There will always be somebody out there that is better than we are at something. There are a lot of people around who may not be as intelligent as we are but who are better at sports. Or they may not be as handsome, but they have more money. It is unthinkable for us to be better than everybody else all the time. Like the Tin Man, the Scarecrow, and the Cowardly Lion, we all need what we believe will make us better people. What we don't understand is that often we already have inside us the very things that we look for. Our parents often forget to tell us that we are special, that we are good enough just as we are. Perhaps no one told them when they were growing up, or maybe they just forgot. Either way, it's up to us to remind them sometimes that each of us, in our own way, is special. What we are . . . is enough.

- 1) What is the writer's main aim in writing the text?
 - A) to talk about your family problems
 - B) to explain the importance of being yourself
 - C) to describe how intelligent we are
 - D) to suggest how people can change their way of life
- 2) This essay was most likely written by ...
 - A) a young person
 - B) a coach
 - C) a teacher
 - D) a parent
- 3) What does the writer say about our parents?
 - A) They always tell us that we are good enough
 - B) They never forget to tell us that we are special
 - C) They always tell us that we are special
 - D) They frequently forget to tell us that we are special
- 4) The author of this essay believes that ...
 - A) we are all good enough just the way we are
 - B) the richer you are, the better you are
 - C) intelligent people are more special than others
 - D) not everyone can be special
- 5) Which of the following would be the best title for this passage?
 - A) What Makes You Laugh?
 - B) What Makes You Happy?
 - C) What Makes You Special?
 - D) What Makes You Stronger?
