

"HATE", "LOVE", "LIKE" Y "PREFER"

Los verbos "hate", "love", "like" y "prefer" suelen ir seguidos de "gerund" cuando su significado es general y de infinitivo para referirse a un momento o situación particulares. Siempre se utiliza el infinitivo con expresiones como "would love to", "would hate to", etc.

💡 ACTIVIDAD: COMPLETA LAS ORACIONES CORRECTAMENTE

1. I _____ Italian food. (love/cook)
2. They _____ mystery novels. (like/read)
3. We _____ horror movies. (love/watch)
4. She _____ early for work. (like/wake up)
5. I _____ before breakfast. (love/exercise)
6. He _____ coffee in the morning. (like/drink)
7. She _____ a new restaurant this weekend.
(like/try)
8. They _____ how to surf. (like/learn)
9. He _____ his favorite singer. (love/meet)
10. We _____ Paris someday. (love/visit)
11. She _____ in the ocean. (like/swim)
12. They _____ before big exams. (hate/study)
13. I _____ Spain next summer. (like/travel to)
14. He _____ in heavy traffic. (hate/drive)
15. We _____ the cinema every Friday. (love/go to)