

I. Match the names of the cities (1–3) to the correct picture (a–c).

1. Tokyo      2. Istanbul      3. Hong Kong

II. Watch the video. Match the numbers to the correct description.

1. 2 pm	a. the number of different types of seafood in the Tokyo market
2. 4,000 +	b. the time the Hong Kong market opens
3. 61	c. the number of shops in the Istanbul market
4. 3 am	d. the number of streets the Grand Bazaar crosses
5. 400 +	e. the time the fish market opens

III. Read the statements and decide if they are T (True) or F (False).

1. Markets are popular because there is usually something for everyone.
2. Online shopping can be difficult because you don't know what you're getting.
3. The fish market in Tokyo is the largest fish market in the world.
4. The fish only arrives at the market by boat.
5. The fish market sells all kinds of seafood including clams, snails and tuna.
6. You can buy bowls, scarves and sweets in the market in Istanbul.
7. The market in Istanbul is only a few years old.
8. The prices in the Istanbul market are fixed, there are no discounts.
9. The market in Hong Kong is very busy at night.
10. The items in the Hong Kong market are expensive.

IV. Answer the questions

1. Which market in the video would you like to visit? Why?
2. Which do you prefer, shops that offer fixed prices or shops that offer a discount? Why?
3. How would you ask for a discount in English?
4. Do you ever go shopping?
5. What do you usually buy?
6. Are there any street markets where you live?
7. Do you visit them?
8. Do your family buy fruit and vegetables from the supermarket or the market?