REPEAT the conversation below.

 Master: All right. You start. You roll the dice.

 Player 1: How many dice?

 Master: One dice.

 Player 2: Wait! Can you repeat that?

 Master: One dice.

 Player 1: But I don't understand it! One dice????!!! It isn't 'one dice', it's 'ONE DIE'.

 Player 2: Yeah. One die. Two dice. Some dice. It's "Roll the die"!

 Master: That's correct. You're right. But in modern popular English "one dice" is correct, too.

 Player 1: But I prefer "One die, two dice"!

 Player 2: Me too. "One die, two dice, three dice, four dice, some dice".

 Master: Ok, guys! Let's start the game. Roll the die and get a number!
