Exercise 1: Complete the sentences with must, have to, need to, don't have to, don't need to, mustn't. Then choose the correct option for each sentence.

1. You _____ wear a uniform at school. It is a rule.
2. She _____ eat so many sweets. It's bad for her health.
3. We _____ hurry. We are late!
4. You _____ do your homework before watching TV.
5. He _____ clean his room if he doesn't want to. It's already clean.
6. You _____ touch the electric wires! It's dangerous.
7. I _____ go to bed early tonight. I have an exam tomorrow.
8. They _____ take an umbrella. It's sunny outside.
9. You _____ listen to the teacher in class.
10. We _____ pay for water in our flat. It is free.

Exercise 2: Choose the correct option

1. You (must / mustn't / don't have to) smoke in school. It's not allowed.
2. She (has to / doesn't have to / must) study hard to pass the test.
3. I (must / need to / don't need to) buy milk. There is some in the fridge.
4. We (must / don't have to / have to) finish this project by tomorrow.
5. You (must / mustn't / need to) wear a seatbelt in the car. It's the law.

Exercise 3: Rewrite the sentences using must, have to, need to, mustn't, don't have to, don't need to.

1. It is necessary to wear a mask in public transport.
   → You _____ wear a mask in public transport.
2. It is not necessary for you to bring your own pen. There are many pens here.
   → You _____ bring your own pen.
3. It is forbidden to talk during the exam.
   → You _____ talk during the exam.
4. It is necessary for me to wake up early tomorrow.
   → I _____ wake up early tomorrow.
5. It is not necessary to call me. I will call you.
   → You _____ call me.

LIVEWORKSHEETS