

PAST TIME DETECTIVES

Identify and categorize regular verbs in past simple while learning about historical women.

1. Marie Curie discovered radium.
2. Frida Kahlo painted self-portraits.
3. Amelia Earhart flew across the Atlantic.
4. Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat.
5. Ada Lovelace created an early computer algorithm.
6. Malala Yousafzai fought for girls' education.

Now, have a look at the list of verbs and use the past tense to talk about yourself about past events in your life:

- be
- belong
- play
- like
- celebrate
- achieve
- develop
- have
- enjoy
- teach
- work
- buy
- clean
- finish
- gain
- study
- take
- win
- build

WOMEN IN SPORTS:

For decades, women _____ hard to break barriers in the world of sports. Athletes like Billie Jean King and Serena Williams _____ with passion and determination, proving that women _____ in competitive sports.

Fans around the world _____ watching their incredible performances and _____ their victories and resilience. Many young girls _____ these role models and felt inspired to follow their own dreams in athletics.

Thanks to these pioneers, women's sports grew and _____ the recognition they deserved.