

arranged marriages
privileged women
toxic masculinity
a thing of the past
first-world issues

glass ceiling
gender pay gap
gender equality
traditional roles

bad-mouthed
superiority

1. I believe in _____, but some extreme feminist views can overshadow the core message of empowerment.
2. Feminism is focused on _____ only. But what about girls who still don't have a proper education and are forced into _____? Why aren't those _____ in fancy offices fighting for their rights?
3. Feminism isn't just about women's rights; it's about challenging _____ and promoting healthy relationships for all genders.
4. Feminism seems to be _____. Women can do whatever they want to do. What's there left to fight for?
5. I believe feminism has lost its way and now focuses more on women's _____ rather than true equality.
6. Feminism is often _____; it's not about hating men but challenging issues like the _____ and promoting a culture of respect and consent.
7. Feminism ignores the choices of women who choose _____, and that's why I don't support it.
8. We've made great progress as a society in breaking through the _____, but it's still there, so we must go on.