

Present Perfect Tense

1. Complete the following questions and their answers (using contractions).

A. Have you ever _____ (to visit) your Argentinian family?
B. No, _____. I really want to, though.

A. Has your teacher ever _____ (to teach) you the Present Perfect Tense?
B. Yes, _____. And it's really useful!

A. Have your parents ever _____ (to tell) you the story of how they first met?
B. No, _____. But I haven't asked them either.

A. Has Michael ever _____ (to play) the piano?
B. Yes, _____. He used to play the piano when he was younger.

A. Have Susan and John ever _____ (to invite) you to one of their parties?
B. Yes, _____. I got an invite last year but I had the flu so I couldn't attend.

2. Complete the sentences with For or Since accordingly.

- a. Taylor Swift's fans have been very supportive _____ her career started.
- b. We don't really know why but the wifi signal has been terrible _____ Friday.
- c. I can't believe you've been married _____ 40 years! Congratulations!
- d. I have waited _____ 2 hours. I need to leave now.
- e. Daniela should see a doctor. She has had those symptoms _____ a couple of months now.
- f. How much time do we have? We haven't visited Steffany _____ the pandemic ended so we could stop by her house.