

Test 3

WHY GO TO SCHOOL?

Task 1

Match the words with their definitions:

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 1) to study | ☐ able to be used |
| 2) to attend | ☐ a kind of education in which pupils of different abilities go to the same school |
| 3) compulsory | ☐ a school paid by the government which gives free education |
| 4) available | ☐ to get the theory of the subject |
| 5) a skill | ☐ must be done because it is the law |
| 6) state school | ☐ to go regularly to a certain place |
| 7) comprehensive | ☐ a school where pupils live, eat and sleep |
| 8) to learn | ☐ an ability to do something well, especially because you have learned and practiced it |
| 9) boarding school | ☐ to get some practical skills |

Task 2

Choose the correct tense form of 'learn' or 'study' from the dropdown menu.

- 1) She _____ to ride a bike two years ago. 2) We _____ the rules last week. 3) My brother is a student. He _____ law at college. 4) Bill must _____ this poem. 5) She _____ Math at school.

Task 3

Choose the correct form of verbs from the dropdown menu.

- 1) If it _____, I'll take the kids skiing. 2) Will Tom post this letter for me if I _____ him? 3) If she _____ no ticket, they won't let her in. 4) If you pass your exams, you _____ the university. 5) You can open the door if you _____ the keys. 6) I _____ you if I hear from him.

Task 4

Complete the sentences in your own way.

We'll have a big party if _____

If you don't work hard you _____

Task 5

Complete the sentences using the words:

Certificate form general exams independent private _____ secondary education (or so-called 'middle school') in Britain lasts five years. Each year of schooling is called a '_____'. At the age of 14 or 15 pupils prepare for their _____ of Secondary Education. If British children don't leave school at the age of 16 they continue their education in the sixth form. Then after two years of study they take their 'A' Level _____. 'A' stands for 'advanced'. Private schools are _____ and they are sometimes called expensive. Many people in Britain are against _____ school and they stand for equal opportunities for secondary school children. That's why they believe that all children should go to a usual British comprehensive school.