Look at how we use 'although' to join two sentences.

He tried to persuade me to watch a film.
I did not go with him.

Although he tried to persuade me to watch a film, I did not go with him.

or

I did not go with him although he tried to persuade me to watch a film.

Notes: "Although" thing that happened first "," thing that happened later.

Thing that happened later "although" thing that happened first.

Rearrange the words to form correct sentences.

1. although / she told the truth / , / he told her to tell a lie

   _____.

2. the children make fun of her / although / she does not get upset

   _____.

3. I am very tired / I cannot sleep / although / ,

   _____.

4. Haziq went to school / although / he was afraid of the bullies

   _____.

5. she did not cry / although / Nadia was very frightened / ,

   _____.

6. although / he told his parents / his friends told him not to tell anyone /

   _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS