

Didier Drogba

Didier Drogba was born on March 11, 1978, in Ivory Coast. When Drogba was a child, he moved to France, and he lived with his uncle, who was also a football player. Drogba started playing football when he was young and became very good at football. [__]

In 2004, he joined Chelsea. He won many trophies with the team because he was strong and fast when playing the sport, making him score many goals. He helped Chelsea win the Champions League in 2012. Drogba also played for Ivory Coast's national team. He was the team captain. He played in the World Cup. [____]

In 2007, there was a war in Ivory Coast. Drogba asked the people to stop fighting. He spoke on TV and asked for peace. After this, the war ended and nowadays, many people in Ivory Coast see him as a hero. [____]

After football, Drogba worked to help people in Africa. He built hospitals and schools. Many people love him because he helps others. [____]

1 Match the pictures with the paragraph

2 Answer the questions

- 1) When was Drogba born?
- 2) Was he the team's captain?
- 3) What do people think of Drogba?
- 4) What did he do after football?

