

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN
POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVE	POSSESSIVE PRONOUN
(my, you, his, her, our, their, its)	(mine, ours, theirs, his, hers, yours)

POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS and POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES --- What's the difference?

- Possessive adjectives are always followed by a noun.
My house
Your family
Our town
- Possessive pronouns are used without a noun.
This book is mine. That one is hers.

Choose a suitable possessive pronoun from the box to substitute the underlined nouns.

ours	his	hers	theirs	mine	yours
------	-----	------	--------	------	-------

1. "Excuse me", that seat is _____. (belonging to me)
2. Please give these shirts to Rehaan. They are _____. (belonging to him.)
3. Is this scooter _____? (belonging to you)
4. The new car parked in the garage is _____. (belonging to them).
5. We are taking these gifts home. They are _____. (belonging to us).
6. Raghu returned the magazines to Shyla as they were _____. (belonging to her).