

1 Match the questions and answers.

- 1 Do you play an instrument, Lily?
- 2 Would you like to play an instrument?
- 3 Who's your favourite singer?
- 4 Justin Bieber? Is he from the USA?
- 5 And what's your favourite song?
- 6 Is there a song which you really don't like?

- a It's Justin Bieber.
- b My favourite song? It's probably 'Never say never'.
- c Yes, I'd like to play the violin.
- d No, not by Justin! But I really don't like 'Someone like you' by Adele.
- e No, I don't.
- f No, he's from Canada.

2

Look at Activity 1. Underline the mistakes. Then write the correct sentences.

Lily plays the guitar. She wouldn't like to play the violin. Her favourite singer is Justin Bieber. He is from America. Her favourite song is 'Never say never.' There is one song which she really doesn't like. It's called 'Someone like me'. It's by Usher.

Lily doesn't play an instrument.

3

Write about yourself and music.

I play the piano and I'd like to play ...

What do I know?

1

Look and draw lines to make sentences.

1	It	isn't you isn't your isn't yours	cap. caps. book.	They're He's It's	my. me. mine.
2	The recorders	which who where	are on are next to are under	the sofa the chair the cupboard	are us. are ours. are violins.
3	I	thinks think thinking	this ball these balls those balls	were are is	hers. yours. theirs.
4	The girl	who is where is which is	sitting sits sit	opposite the tree next to the tree on the tree	is my sister. is hers. is my brother.

2

Read and think.

Then write two more.

How are musical instruments different?

You can hit some instruments.

3

Read. Then write about you and draw.

My favourite instrument is the piano.

It has keys and strings. It's a percussion and string instrument.

