

Daily Routines

Do you remember the story "Doctor Molly"? This is Molly's father, and he will tell us about his routine. Choose the correct option to complete the text.

Hi! I'm Molly's father, Charles. How are you? I'm exhausted now! It's 10 p.m. and I'm watching TV because I had a very busy day! Actually, every day is a busy day for me!

I always _____ at 5.30 a.m. and I _____ breakfast. I _____ breakfast with my wife and daughter because they are sleeping at that time. They _____ at 7.30 a.m. When I finish breakfast, I _____ a shower, _____ and _____ to work. I start working at 7 a.m.

I come back home at 6 p.m., and I usually _____ Molly with her homework. She _____ a good student and she _____ a lot. But she _____ Maths, so I _____ her with that. After homework, we _____ to spend some time together, and we _____ games or _____ series. Molly and I _____ the same type of series, but that doesn't matter. We _____ fun together. Sometimes my wife also _____ series with us, but as she _____ a lot, many times she _____ home until 11 p.m. At around 9 p.m. we usually _____ dinner. Sometimes I _____ and sometimes my wife _____. The only one that _____ is Molly, but she always _____ the dishes.
