

Vocabulary training

Food and Eating

Decide if the sentence makes sense or not. Choose the correct option: "Makes sense" or "Makes no sense."

1. I prefer my coffee brewed rather than instant. _____
2. Kate always adds a pinch of salt and pepper to her salads. _____
3. I love eating sour food like chocolate and candies. _____
4. James likes his eggs scrambled with cheese and tomatoes. _____
5. The chef roasted yogurt and served it with chips. _____
6. Julia always puts vinegar on her ice cream for extra flavor. _____
7. The kids enjoyed their homemade biscuits with jam and butter. _____
8. She's a vegetarian, so she never goes to the butcher's to buy any kind of meat. _____
9. Olivia always drinks herbal tea before bed because it helps her sleep. _____
10. Kevin learned how to make crepes and served them with honey and fresh berries. _____
11. Fried potatoes are a popular side dish served with steaks in many restaurants. _____
12. Rachel made pancakes for breakfast and served them with maple syrup. _____
13. Simon ordered a bowl of chicken soup to warm up on a chilly day. _____
14. The waiter brought a jug of compote to the table, which everyone enjoyed. _____
15. The restaurant served sparkling jam with the pasta. _____
16. Henry ordered scrambled steak with porridge. _____
17. I bought a loaf of wholemeal bread because it's healthier than white bread. _____
18. We had grilled sausages and mashed potatoes for lunch. _____
19. The pie was so delicious that everyone asked for a second helping. _____
20. Jessica boiled potatoes before mashing them for dinner. _____

