WHAT I DID LAST AUTUMN 2024

Last autumn (2024), I had a very busy season.

I visited my grandparents and stayed with them for two weeks. The weather was cold, so we watched movies and cooked hot meals together. I also studied a lot because I had important exams. Every weekend, I walked in the park and enjoyed the autumn leaves. My best friend and I planned a trip to the countryside, but we didn't travel because it rained too much. Instead, we tried a new café in town and we loved it!

Fill in the blanks using the correct past simple form of the verbs in parentheses. Pay attention to spelling rules!

1. Last autumn, I _____ (study) for my exams.
2. My grandparents _____ (cook) delicious meals.
3. My best friend and I _____ (plan) a trip, but we _____ (not / travel).
4. I _____ (try) a new café, and I _____ (love) it!
5. The weather _____ (rain) a lot, so we _____ (not / go) outside much.

WHAT I AM DOING THIS AUTUMN 2025.

Now, this autumn (2025), things are different.

I am living in a new apartment next month, and I am taking a photography course when I get there. The weather is warmer, so I am spending more time outside. Every morning, I am running in the park and I am practicing yoga. My best friend and I are preparing for a new trip to Canada—we aren't staying home this time!
