

Choose the correct adjective

1. English grammar can be very _____ . (confusing / confused)
2. I'm very _____ in the cultures of Africa. (interested / interesting)
3. I was _____ when I first heard about the tsunami. (shocking shocked)
4. Mr Briggs is such a dull speaker. His classes are always _____ . (bored / boring)
5. "Your writing is quite _____. You need to study harder! (disappointed / disappointing)
6. I had such a _____ day at work, I went straight to bed. (exhausted / exhausting)
7. The way that light shines produces a very _____ effect. (pleased / pleasing)
8. The way she hangs on to her boyfriend and fawns all over him is rather _____. (embarrassed / embarrassing)
9. Did you see her new film? It was _____. (amazed / amazing)
10. I was _____ when I noticed how he kept his animals. (disgusted / disgusting)
11. Helen's such a show-off. It's quite _____. (annoyed / annoying)
12. Those hamburgers look _____. They must be ten days old! (disgusted / disgusting)
13. Andrea was really _____ when the teacher caught her with cheat notes. (embarrassed / embarrassing)
14. We were all _____ by her story although we didn't believe a word she said (intrigued / intriguing)
15. I'm _____. Could you explain it to me once again, please? (confusing / confused)

