

Choose the correct option

1. The new business couldn't afford to pay more than the wage.
2. It's not easy to make meet with a big family, but somehow we manage.
3. A fight broke out behind me as we lined to receive our food rations.
4. We'd almost signed the contract when the other guys moved the and said they wanted more money.

5. She continued to be paid to the end of her contract and received no severance.....
6. She was taken as a laboratory assistant.
7. They begged mercy.
8. Among the participants, 34 % altered either their income goal or their retirement..... goal.
9. The report said that in Europe the UK has the largest gender between women's and men's earnings.
10. The CEO has said the company needs at least £1 million in cuts.