TAG QUESTIONS

B1

Tag Questions, or Question tags, are used at the end of statements to turn the statements into questions. We usually use question tags to confirm something that we believe to be true or to invite the listener to agree or disagree with a statement.

Verb Tense	+ sentence → - tag	- sentence → + tag
Present be	She is American, isn't she?	She isn't American, is she?
Present simple	You study English, don't you?	You don't study English, do you?
Past simple	You were at home, weren't you?	You weren't at home, were you?
Past continuous	Tom was watching TV, wasn't he?	Tom wasn't watching TV, was he?
Present Perfect	He has written 5 letters, hasn't he?	He hasn't written 5 letters, has he?
Past Perfect	You had had lunch, hadn't you?	You hadn't had lunch, had you?
Will	He'll read this book, won't he?	He won't read this book, will he?
Modal Verbs	He can read this book, can't he?	He can't read this book, can he?

Use the same auxiliary verb as in the main sentence. If there is no auxiliary verb, use do for present and did for past.

Use a comma before the question tag and a subject pronoun at the end (I, you, he, she, it, we, you, they).

- You are his brother, aren't you?
- He will be there, won't he?
- You work here, don't you?
