

UNIT 13 - LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE

I. Match the Words with Their Definitions

Term	Definitions
1. Injection	A. A sore caused by prolonged pressure on the skin.
2. Licensed practical nurse	B. The movement of patients through a healthcare facility.
3. Bedside	C. A professional who has completed training and passed an exam to practice nursing.
4. Bedsore	D. A document or system storing patient information digitally.
5. Patient flow	E. A formal permission to practice a profession.
6. Certified	F. Tasks related to paperwork, scheduling, and organization in healthcare.
7. Degree	G. A substance used to stimulate immunity against diseases.
8. License	H. An action involving injecting medication into the body.
9. Electronic health record	I. An officially recognized qualification after completing a study program.
10. Accredited	J. A hospital or educational institution that meets specific standards.
11. Vaccine	K. The act of ordering medical supplies again.
12. Administrative task	L. Essential materials used in a hospital or clinic.
13. Re-orders	M. Having official approval or certification.
14. Supply	N. The area next to a patient's hospital bed.

II. Fill in the blank

accredited , patient flow , licensed practical nurse, injection, bedside, bedsores, degree, license, electronic health record, vaccine, certified, re-orders

1. The nurse administered an _____ to the patient to reduce pain.
2. A _____ usually works under the supervision of a registered nurse.
3. The doctor checked the patient's condition at the _____.

4. Long-term bedridden patients are at risk of developing _____.
5. Improving _____ in hospitals can help reduce waiting times.
6. The hospital is _____ by an international healthcare organization.
7. Nurses must complete a _____ in nursing before applying for a job.
8. A _____ is required to legally practice as a nurse.
9. The hospital uses an _____ to store and manage patient records efficiently.
10. The government encourages people to get a _____ against influenza.
11. The pharmacy _____ medications to ensure there is enough stock.
12. The nurse is _____ to perform advanced medical procedures.