

1. Select which ones were results of Jim Crow laws. (Choose 4)

Unfair poll taxes and voting tests were established to keep African Americans from voting.	African Americans were forced to use separate facilities such as public bathrooms and water fountains.
There were no differences between races.	African Americans found it difficult to vote or hold office.
African American children and white children attended separate schools.	Everyone was able to use the same public facilities.

2. Match the following. Connect the dots.

Coal	●
Tobacco and tobacco farming	●
Need for better roads	●
These grew with people, factories, and businesses	●
These were key to the expansion of business, agriculture, and industries. They helped furniture and clothing stores and farmers grow. Roanoke, Norfolk, Newport News, Petersburg, Alexandria, and Lynchburg are cities because these helped them grow.	●

●	Increased as the population grew.
●	This was found in Tazewell County. It became a source of income and livelihood for many people in Southwest Virginia.
●	Railroads
●	Virginia's cities
●	Became an important Virginia industry.