

1 Read about the future of the seedling and the baby bird.

Write the numbers in the Venn diagram.

- |                               |                                  |                                    |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1 It'll grow bigger.   | 4 It won't learn to swim. | 7 It'll learn to fly.       |
| 2 It won't make seeds. | 5 It'll have feathers.    | 8 It won't move about.      |
| 3 It'll have flowers.  | 6 It won't lay eggs.      | 9 It'll need air and water. |

2 Read and complete the sentences with 'll or won't.

- 1 A snake won't come out of the egg but a chick 'll come out.
- 2 It _____ grow feathers but it _____ have scales.
- 3 It _____ learn to swim but it _____ learn to walk.
- 4 It _____ eat worms and it _____ grow bigger.
- 5 It _____ need water but it _____ need milk.
- 6 It _____ make seeds and it _____ have roots.

3 Write about a tadpole.

- |   |                           |   |                        |
|---|---------------------------|---|------------------------|
| ✓ |                           | x |                        |
| 1 | It'll change into a frog. | 4 | It won't learn to fly. |
| 2 |                           | 5 |                        |
| 3 |                           | 6 |                        |