TradingFinder Economic Calendar Extension Key Features

To simplify user experience, TradingFinder offers a feature-rich Forex Economic Calendar extension with the following properties:

- ⚡ Customized Time Zone: Access a detailed list of upcoming events in your local time zone;
- ⚡ Importance-Based Display: Filter economic news based on impact level, from high to low;

The screenshot shows a filter interface titled "← Importance" with a blue close button in the top right. It contains three radio button options: "High" (green bar chart icon), "Moderate" (orange bar chart icon), and "Low" (red bar chart icon). The "Moderate" option is selected, indicated by a blue checkmark in the radio button. Handwritten annotations in green, orange, and red ink show checkboxes next to the words "High", "Moderate", and "Low" respectively. A purple arrow points from the "Moderate" radio button to the handwritten text "Choose the importance level to filter news", which is underlined in purple. A blue circular icon is visible in the bottom right corner of the interface.

TradingFinder Economic Calendar categorizes news in three levels based on their impact
