

Name:

Date:

Adjectives ending in -ed vs -ing

I. Write -ed or -ing form of these adjectives.

1. interesting
2. frightening
3. boring
4. surprising
5. pleasing
6. tiring

7. embarrassed
8. confused
9. shocked
10. worried
11. disappointed
12. excited

II. Read and choose.

1. I think this movie is boring / bored.
2. I don't understand chess. The rules are very confusing / confused.
3. I'm so pleased / pleasing to see you.
4. Moving to a new house is tired / tiring.
5. I'm frightening / frightened of snakes. They are frightening / frightened.
6. Don't show my baby photos to others, mom! It's embarrassed / embarrassing.

III. Fill in the blank.

1. The children are about their exams. (worry)
2. She was so when she saw her presents. (surprise)
3. Their English marks were so (disappoint)
4. Jack's birthday party was so (excite)
5. My little brother makes too much noise. He is (annoy)
6. I was of jumping rope. (tire)
7. I'm reading an book about space. (interest)
8. The news was All of us are (shock)

Name:

Date:

Adjectives ending in -ed vs -ing

Read and choose

1. The movie was scary. I was
A. frightened B. frightening C. worried D. worrying
2. It is to sing in public.
A. disappointed B. disappointing C. embarrassed D. embarrassing
3. His holiday to Spain was
A. excited B. exciting C. pleased D. pleasing
4. The story I'm reading was so
A. bored B. boring C. tired D. tiring
5. Joanne is about her exams.
A. worried B. worrying C. surprised D. surprising
6. Walking 20 km is so
A. interested B. interesting C. tired D. tiring
7. Winning a prize is
A. amazed B. amazing C. annoyed D. annoying
8. I was when I saw David Beckham walked into the café.
A. surprised B. surprising C. confused D. confusing
9. My neighbors always listen to loud music. It is so
A. shocked B. shocking C. annoyed D. annoying
10. The math problems are so
A. confused B. confusing C. embarrassed D. embarrassing
11. My test result is so
A. interested B. interesting C. disappointed D. disappointing
12. Paul is about his birthday party.
A. excited B. exciting C. scared D. scary