INTERVIEW -SAMPLE ANSWERS-

1. What's your name, and where are you from?

Sample Answer:

"My name is Maria, and I'm from Madrid, Spain. I've lived here my whole life, but I've traveled extensively for both work and leisure. I've always been interested in learning about different cultures, and I think it's important to be open-minded about the world."

2. Can you describe your daily routine? What do you usually do in the morning?

Sample Answer:

"On weekdays, my routine is pretty consistent. I wake up around 7:00 a.m., have a light breakfast — usually coffee and toast — and then I prepare for work. I'm usually at the office by 8:30 a.m. Most of my mornings are spent in meetings, addressing emails, and organizing tasks. I find that having a structured morning helps me stay organized and productive throughout the day."

3. What do you like to do in your free time? Why?

Sample Answer:

"In my free time, I enjoy reading, especially novels that offer an intriguing storyline. I find that reading helps me unwind and improve my language skills at the same time. I also like going for walks in the park, especially when the weather is pleasant. It's a great way to clear my mind, and it's an important part of my routine to stay active and relaxed."

INTERVIEW

4. How long have you been learning English? What has been the most challenging part for you?

Sample Answer:

"I've been learning English for about five years, and it's definitely been a rewarding experience. The most challenging part for me has been mastering idiomatic expressions and understanding different accents. For example, I often find British English more difficult to understand compared to American English. However, I've made progress by listening to podcasts and watching movies in English, which helps me improve my listening skills."

5. How important do you think it is to learn foreign languages?

What benefits does it bring?

Sample Answer:

"I believe learning foreign languages is incredibly important. In today's interconnected world, being able to communicate in more than one language opens up many opportunities, both professionally and personally. In my experience, learning English has allowed me to travel more easily, connect with people from different cultures, and stay informed about global issues. It also broadens your perspective and makes you more adaptable in a variety of situations."

INTERVIEW

6. Can you describe a place you visited that left a strong impression on you? Why was it special?

Sample Answer:

"Last year, I visited Japan, and it left a lasting impression on me. The blend of traditional and modern elements in the cities was fascinating. I was particularly struck by the serenity of the temples and gardens, which offered a stark contrast to the bustling city life. The attention to detail and the peaceful atmosphere made it a truly unique and enriching experience. I believe such trips help you develop a greater appreciation for different cultures and perspectives."

7. What are the differences between your hometown and the city you live in now?

Sample Answer:

"My hometown is much smaller and quieter than the city I live in now, which is Barcelona. In my hometown, life is more relaxed and everyone knows each other. You can walk anywhere in just a few minutes. In contrast, Barcelona is much more fast-paced and modern. In fact, the way I see it, it's a vibrant city with a lot of energy, but sometimes it can feel overwhelming. Consequently, both places have their own charm, but I enjoy the diversity and opportunities Barcelona offers."

INTERVIEW

8. How do you usually keep in touch with your friends or family members? Why do you prefer that method?

Sample Answer:

"I mostly keep in touch with my family and friends through video calls, especially because it allows us to see each other while chatting. It's much more personal than just texting, and I feel it strengthens our connection, even when we're far apart. Additionally, I use messaging apps for quick updates, but video calls are always my first choice when I want to have a deeper conversation."

9. What is one of the most important values in your life? How does it influence your decisions or actions?

Sample Answer:

"From my perspective, honesty is one of the most important values to me. I believe that being truthful helps build trust and strong, lasting relationships. This value influences many aspects of my life, both personally and professionally. For instance, when I'm faced with a dilemma at work, I always try to be transparent about my thoughts, even if it means delivering bad news. I consider this approach ultimately leads to better outcomes in the long run."

INTERVIEW

10. What do you think will change in the next 10 years in terms of technology and communication?

Sample Answer:

"I'm under the impression that in the next 10 years, I think we'll see significant advancements in both technology and communication. Virtual reality might become more integrated into our daily lives, allowing for more immersive experiences, especially in education and work. We'll likely see smarter devices and more advanced AI tools that will make communication even more seamless. However, I do think we'll need to be careful about maintaining face-to-face interactions, as technology can sometimes make people feel more isolated rather than connected."
