Complete the gaps

playing came steer navigate raised dwell turned

A. The manager a blind eye to Jack being late today because of his good performance.

B. Don't on your mistakes; focus instead on what you can improve.

C. You'll have to learn how to carefully relationships in your team, because taking sides can easily become a dealbreaker for many team members.

D. I can't figure out if he's interested or not – he's been hot and cold for weeks.

E. He didn't mean to sound rude, but his comments off as arrogant to my parents.

F. You'd better clear of controversial topics at the family dinner tonight.

G. Her decision to quit her high-paying job eyebrows among her colleagues.

LIVEWORKSHEETS