Art in the Park!

Every day, people go to the park. They ride their bikes, fly kites, or have picnics. But today, they are going to the park to see art.

Artists are making statues of different animals from stone, paper, and clay. One artist is making a statue from ice!

Artists are helping children to paint pictures. Some children are drawing pictures and making a mural on a wall. They are putting small pieces of tile together to make a big mosaic. The mosaic has a lot of different colors, and it looks beautiful.
