

Please fill the gaps and finish the story:

Today is the year 2115, and we are near the MSU faculty of real brutal hacker-robots. Let's enter this _____ and see how a man has turned into the best version of himself - a robot that _____ makes mistakes! You'll go straight to the computer rooms where real magic happens! All teachers have a button in their brain that turns on and _____ a copy of you that can walk the hallways of the building and give orders. If we go to the canteen, there is no food, to get food, you don't have to _____, it is enough to _____ a problem in programming or mathematics! By the way, there are few people at CMC, since the robots created by Chernov are ready to attack you at any moment and force you to improve.

Fill the gaps and finish the story by adding a few sentences:

I think that universities in the future will be somewhat different from our usual _____ institutions. Studying will take place completely _____, there will be no need to waste time on _____. In addition, I believe that most of the studies will be conducted in the format of viewing recordings of lectures and seminars, and if you have any questions, they will _____ a meeting with the teacher. Other knowledge control tools will be introduced to more accurately _____ the student's knowledge.

