

LES QUANTIFIEURS

Degré de quantité	Quantité dénombrable	Quantité indénombrable
Rien (= pas de...)	No potatoes Not any potatoes	No water Not any water
Petite quantité insuffisante (= peu de...)	Few potatoes Not many potatoes	Little water Not much water
Petite quantité suffisante (= un peu de...)	A few potatoes	A little water
Quantité moyenne (= de..., du..., des...)	Some potatoes	Some water
Grande quantité (= beaucoup...)	A lot of potatoes Ø Lots of potatoes Plenty of potatoes Many potatoes	A lot of water Ø Lots of water Plenty of water Much water
Trop grande quantité (= trop de...)	Too many potatoes	Too much water

1. A lot of, much ou many? Circle the right proposition

- There are many / much people working for Universal Studios.
- We had many / a lot of fun there, didn't we?
- How many / much days did you spend over there?
- How much / many money did you spend during the trip?
- Mike bought a lot of / much t-shirts when he was in California.
- She doesn't need a lot of / much time to be ready.

2. Select the right answer among the propositions.

- Few / A few have had the chance to win millions at the lottery. It's rare!
- Not many / much people have won the lottery.
- Only few / a few people won the lottery last year.
- They didn't spend much / many time at the casino last night.
- Too many / Too much people lose their money when they play the lottery.
- A lot of / A lots of people like gambling (=betting money).
- She won some / many money at the casino.

3. Complete the sentences with little / few / a little / a few.

- She invited Friends.
- people work on Sundays.
- Hurry up! I have patience.
- I would like milk, please.
- Can you give me money to go to the cinema, please?
- There were visitors at the museum so it was very quiet.

4. Complete with much, many, too much, too many or a lot of.

- She eats potatoes!
- I'm afraid I won't make out of it!
- She's got dolls at home.
- I'm sure them will come.
- He didn't give us time.
- Did you meet English people here?