City Break Dilemma

Listen to the audio. Decide if the statements are true or false.

1. The couple is planning a long summer holiday.
2. One idea on their list is to go somewhere cold.
3. Cairo is mentioned as a sunny and warm destination.
4. London is considered a classic travel choice.
5. They like that London has many indoor activities.
6. They completely reject the idea of going to Barcelona.
7. Barcelona's mild spring weather sounds appealing to both of them.
8. In the end, they choose to book tickets for Bangkok.
9. They agree to think about the two final options overnight.

Match each city (A–E) to the correct weather description (1–6). There is one extra.

1. Reykjavík	A. Hot, sunny, and very dry — you definitely won't need a jacket.
2. Cairo	B. Mild temperatures, some sunshine — not too hot, not too cold.
3. London	C. Often rainy and hard to predict — could be sunny in the morning and rainy in the afternoon.
4. Barcelona	D. Warm and dry with no chance of rain — perfect for swimming.
5. Bangkok	E. Very hot and humid with possible rain showers — a long flight needed to get there.
	F. Cold and windy in spring, but great for winter activities and nature views.
