

FOOD AROUND THE WORLD

Read the paragraph below. After reading, use the adjectives to complete the activities.

Different countries have different traditional foods. In Costa Rica, people love Gallo Pinto. It is a delicious and healthy dish made with rice and beans. In Italy, people enjoy sweet and soft ice cream, perfect for hot days. In France, warm croissants are soft and light, and many people eat them for breakfast. From Korea, kimchi is a famous spicy food made with cabbage and vegetables. It has a strong and crunchy taste.

Some foods are very rich, like chocolate cake. Cakes are usually soft and sweet. Other foods, like fried chicken or cheesy pizza, can be salty or greasy. People in many countries enjoy different flavors: sour lemons in drinks, crunchy carrots as a snack, or a fresh salad with olive oil, which is a healthy option. Food can be delicious in many different ways!

Drag and Drop Adjectives – Food Around the World

Instructions: Drag the correct adjective into each blank.

(sweet – healthy – delicious – crunchy – spicy – greasy – sour – salty – soft – rich)

1. Gallo Pinto, a traditional dish from Costa Rica, is very _____.

2. Ice cream from Italy is cold and _____.

3. Fresh carrots make a great snack because they're _____.

4. Lemons are often used in drinks because they are very _____.

5. A warm croissant from France is light and _____.

6. Kimchi, a famous dish from Korea, is usually very _____.

7. A salad with vegetables and olive oil is a _____ option for lunch.

8. A slice of chocolate cake is soft and _____.

9. Fried chicken from the southern U.S. is tasty but also a bit _____.

10. Pizza with lots of cheese and pepperoni can be very _____.

Language and Culture Quiz – Food Around the World

Instructions: Choose the correct country, food, or sentence.

1. Where is "sushi" originally from?

- a) Japan
- b) China
- c) Vietnam

2. Which food is a traditional dish from Costa Rica?

- a) Pad Thai
- b) Gallo Pinto
- c) Tacos

3. What is the best adjective to describe "kimchi"?

- a) Sweet
- b) Spicy
- c) Greasy

4. Which sentence is correct?

- a) Pizza are salty and delicious.
- b) Pizza is salty and delicious.
- c) Pizzas is salty and delicious.

5. Which food is traditional in Mexico?

- a) Sushi
- b) Tacos
- c) Croissant

6. Croissants are soft and buttery. Where do they come from?

- a) France
- b) Italy
- c) Argentina

7. Which food is usually considered healthy?

- a) Fried chicken
- b) Salad
- c) Donuts

