

Vocabulary Practice

A Complete the sentences using the correct "do" expression.

do research

do one's homework

do the cooking

do sb good

do the best I can/do one's best

do well/badly

1. Tell your friends that you can play only when you've _____.
2. Nathan promised that he'll _____ to help your children.
3. Ashley usually _____ and Donna lays the table.
4. Is your throat sore, Linda? A cup of hot tea will _____ then.
5. I was glad to hear that they both _____ in their exams.
6. Mr Welles and his scientific team are _____ on gorillas.

B Complete with the correct phrasal verb.

get on well with sb: have a good/friendly relationship with sb

get across: make sth understood

get by: manage to live

get through: finish doing sth

get away with: not punished for sth wrong you've done

1. Oscar broke the kitchen window, but he didn't _____ it.
2. Unfortunately, I don't _____ our new French teacher.
3. The lecturer found it difficult to _____ his ideas _____ to us.
4. Jessica managed to _____ only the first two exercises in the test.
5. Now that he's working part-time, he'll have to learn to _____ on less.

C Fill in the word formation table and then complete the text using the correct derivative.

VERB	NOUN	ADJECTIVE	ADVERB
1. _____	consideration	_____	considerably
2. _____	_____	located	_____
3. _____	fascination	_____	_____
4. _____	_____	anxious	_____
5. mind	_____	_____	mindlessly
6. _____	_____	_____	terrifyingly, terribly
7. bore	boredom	_____	_____
8. _____	_____	selective	_____

Buying a home can cause a person a (1) _____ CONSIDER amount of stress. All you have to remember is that
(2) _____ is everything. You can buy the LOCATE
most (3) _____ house, but if it's in the wrong FASCINATE neighborhood it's only going to lose its value and cause you a great amount of (4) _____. ANXIOUS
So what should you look out for? Here are some things to consider before making a (5) _____ decision. Houses near lakes or parks MIND usually hold on to their value whereas those in industrial, noisy areas drop in value.
Another important factor to consider is safety. Why buy a house in a neighborhood where you are too (6) _____ to step outside for a walk? TERRIFY
And what if you were feeling (7) _____? Wouldn't it be great if there BORE was a (8) _____ of shops and restaurants near your house? These are SELECT just a few things you might want to think about before buying your house.