Maya's first Job!

"Sure thing. First, you take the book and scan the barcode here," John demonstrated. "Bear with me, I'm new to this too, but we're learning together."
"Thanks, John," Maya said. "This helps a lot."
John smiled. "Anytime, Maya. We're a team now."

"Let me see if I got this right," Maya said. "Fiction goes here, non-fiction there, and science fiction over there?"
"Yes, exactly," John replied. "Do you have any questions so far?"

"Oh, I see," said Maya. "But I'm afraid I don't know much about arranging the books. Could you clarify that for me?"
"Of course. We arrange them by genre first, then by author's last name," explained John.

Maya was starting her new job at a small bookstore. On her first day, she met her coworker, John.
"Hi, Maya. How can I help you today?" John asked.

"Um... I'm not sure where to begin," Maya said, looking around. "I'm not familiar with how things work here."
"No problem," John smiled. "Let me show you around. This is the section where we keep the new books."

"Well, I'm a bit confused about the check-out process," Maya confessed.
"Don't worry," John reassured her. "I'll teach you. It's easy once you get the hang of it."
"Thanks for the reassurance. I'm not certain about scanning the books. Could you show me how?" Maya asked.
