Jade is my best friend. This is a photo of her birthday party. Look at her big cake! She's twelve. She's very happy.

The party is at Jade's house. All her friends and family are there but they aren't in the photo. Her granny and grandad are there too. Her grandad isn't English. He's from China.

Her presents are very cool. Her favourite present is her new mobile phone. It's blue, her favourite colour. She's in her new red top in the photo.
