

Present Continuous with always

You use always and a continuous verb to talk about things people do a lot. A continuous verb ends in +ing.

Examples:

- He is always playing basketball at lunch time.
- The girls are always coming late for class.
- I am always watching TV instead of doing my homework.

Choose the correct verb to complete the sentences using always and a continuous verb.

listen talk sleep eat buy smile laugh win bark take

1. I don't trust my sister. She _____ my clothes without asking me.
2. My friend's dog is so loud. It _____ at the smallest sounds!
3. My Math teacher is so funny- We _____ in her class.
4. You seem to be sad today. Usually you _____ , but today, you haven't smiled at all. What's wrong?
5. This basketball team is the best. They _____ by the end of the season.

6. Jonathan is a really good boyfriend. He _____ his girlfriend so many presents.
7. I don't like eating lunch with Sarah. She _____ with her mouth open.
8. My cell phone bill is so expensive because I _____
on the phone.
9. Peter must not sleep at home because he _____ during class time.
10. Jessica wants to be a singer. She _____ to music and singing.