"Social Changes and Global Challenges"

Instructions: Read the text and fill in the blanks with the correct vocabulary from the box below. Use the correct form of the words if necessary.

Vocabulary

child labour • homelessness • generate • illiteracy • reduce • resources • inequality • launch • overpopulation • specialised • border • real • income • spread • NGO

In many parts of the world, societies are undergoing rapid transformations. Issues such as _____ and extreme poverty remain at the forefront of global concerns. As cities become more crowded due to _____, competition for jobs and housing intensifies, often leading to rising levels of _____.

Many families live below the poverty line, earning minimal _____, and struggling to access basic _____ like clean water and education. A growing number of young children are subjected to _____, working in factories or on the streets instead of attending school, which contributes to high _____ rates in some regions.

To tackle these issues, various governments and organizations _____ programs that aim to provide access to education, healthcare, and housing. One prominent example is the work of an _____ that focuses on empowering women through vocational training and micro-financing.

Another concern is the ongoing migration crisis. Every day, people cross the _____ between countries, fleeing conflict or seeking a better life. This movement of people can cause cultural clashes, especially when public services are overwhelmed. Still, it's important to remember that behind the statistics are _____ human lives.

Experts believe the key to meaningful progress is to _____ social gaps and encourage inclusive development. Investing in _____ services like education and mental health care is essential. New technologies can also help _____ awareness and mobilize support for global issues.

When we address problems as complex as these, we must rely on _____ knowledge and thoughtful planning.