

Name: _____

Course: _____

S P E A K I N G

For realize the next exercise, it's important to look the expressions of the table:

GIVING INSTRUCTIONS	RESPONDING TO INSTRUCTIONS
First,... Second,... After a few minutes, ... After that,... Then... Next, ... The last thing you need to do is ... Finally,... Never/Always check the program. I/We have to... It's important (not) to ... Try (not) to... You/We need to...	That seems fun/easy. Of course. OK. Sure. No worries. No problem. What next? Now what? Then what do I do? I hope it works/I get it right.

Listen to the conversation that Michael and Lucy have.
Then, complete the blank spaces:

Lucy: _____, you open this language-learning app. _____, you pick a lesson. See? This one is about greetings.

Michael: That _____ easy. Can you choose different topics?

Lucy: Sure! What do you want to practice?

Michael: Um ... travel phrases.

Lucy: _____ worries. We just type it in here ... Oops! Obviously, I need to spell it correctly, of course!

Michael: Ha! Yes, that helps. _____, what do I do?

Lucy: You see that microphone? You need _____ speak the phrase out loud to check your pronunciation.

Michael: Oh yeah, there it is! This app is awesome! I'm going to download it.

Lucy: Have fun! But _____ forget to practice every day—consistency is key!