

Unit 5 – Lesson 21

Penguin Chick

1 - Why does it take three days for the mother penguin to reach the water?

- a. The snow is deep.
- b. She gets lost in a snowstorm.
- c. The shore is frozen for miles.
- d. She stops to play with the other mothers.

2- What must a father penguin do to keep the egg on his feet?

- a. shuffle when he walks
- b. slide across the ice on his belly
- c. huddle with other penguin fathers
- d. curl the tips of his wings

3- How do father penguins survive without food while they care for their chicks?

- a. They get the nutrients they need from the ice.
- b. They have a layer of fat that keeps them alive.
- c. The mother penguins bring them food each day.
- d. They bring up food that is stored in their stomach.

4- Why is it important for a chick's down to be fluffy?

- a. It helps the chick swim.
- b. It makes the chick look cute.
- c. It helps keep the chick warm.
- d. It makes the chick's coat waterproof.