I wanted to ..... for a while

Thought that a couple of drinks could ease my mind

I've been thinking of you for ..... weeks straight

I know that I need to get myself back in the .....

Someone said your name, I had to turn around

Suddenly you're there ..... in the crowd

Everything ..... back in the blink of an eye

It's like you're mine, you're still mine

We skip the small talk, 'cause you ..... me

Better than I, know myself

Oh my, it's been a while now, since I .....you

But it feels like, yesterday

Somehow ..... has stopped

Nothing's changed, we're the same

Yeah, you know me, like .....else

I wanted to ..... for a while

I called a couple a friends and we went out

But I never thought I'd see your .....

I really wanted to escape but it was just too late
