

Vocabulary training

Revision

Decide if the sentence makes sense or not. Choose the correct option: "Makes sense" or "Makes no sense."

1. Leo planted a tree in his garden to celebrate Earth Day.
2. The drought caused puddles to appear all over the field.
3. The weather forecast predicted a blizzard in the northern mountains.
4. The thunderstorm caused a power cut that lasted two hours.
5. People wore masks because the air pollution was dangerously high.
6. After the frost melted, the plants slowly came back to life.
7. The melting of the deserts is one of the biggest climate concerns today.
8. The forecast said it would be foggy, so we brought our sunglasses.
9. The forest was quiet except for the sound of birds in the branches.
10. He gave me a bouquet of thorns for my birthday — it was the most beautiful one I've ever seen.
11. The oak tree had a thick trunk covered in rough bark.
12. The meadow was filled with wildflowers and buzzing bees.
13. The increase in acid rain has improved the soil in the rainforest.
14. Peonies bloom beautifully in spring gardens.
15. Deforestation threatens the natural habitat of many wild animals.
16. To reduce waste, the company started producing more plastic bags.
17. We picked up litter during the local environmental clean-up day.
18. The landfill was praised for its fresh air and eco-tourism activities.
19. My little brother slipped on the icy pavement after the snowfall yesterday.
20. During the summer heatwave, Emma always carries a reusable water bottle.